> Remember Rim To-Day-Christmas at the Ohio Orphans' Home-All Along the Line. THE OHIO ORPHANS' CHRISTMAS.

Christmas preparations at the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home always commences several weeks before Christmas, and especially since the Grand Army of the Republic, Woman's Relief fested in the election of a successor to Department Corps and Sons of Veterans have been taking such Commander Jerome B. Burke. The candidates so an interest in supplying Christmas presents. Sev-eral weeks ago each child in the Home was perfar named for the position are Col. Charles P. Lincoln, Post 2; Wm. S. Odell, Post 8; Maj. Emmett Urell, Post 1, and Col. J. F. Vinoi, Post 3. Com-mander-in-Chief Rea has notified the Assistant mitted to make a selection of what presents they wanted, and these lists were given to the commit Adjutant-General that he will be in attendance tee, which held a meeting at the Home three weeks prior to Christmas, and the committee followed out the request of each child as nearly as possible. The G.A.R. Committee, composed of Mr. Ira W. Wallace, Chairman; Mrs. Etta R. Dolson, Mrs. Mary D. Reifsnyder and Mrs. Hattle Canfield, of Springfield, and Mrs. Lizzte L. Herron, Cincinnali; ton Dec. 30, which was largely attended. The hall was profusely decorated with flags and the pictures The orchestra stand was bandsomely draped. In the center of the room was a tripod, from which hung a cauldron, in which coffee was brewing. It and the W.R.C., Committee, composed of Mrs. Belle T. Bagley, Department President; Mrs. Hanwas flanked on either side with two long tables, on nah M. Leslie, Department Secretary; Mrs. Lizzio Harlan, Department Trensurer, and Mrs. Mary E. THE BADGE OF HONOR.

BY MRS. DORA SEARLE, President, Corps 33, Lowell, Mass. "For what he was and all he dared, Remember him to-day,"

The night was passing fair and sweet, The moon lit up the silent street, The stars looked on with solemn eyes From boundless fields of evening sicles, As thoughtfully my way I took, Nor heeded near the babbling brook, Nor noted where the shadows fell From leafy tree, on hill and dell.

My steps hung slow as on I went, For there in sight before me bent The happy home so fair and sweet, Where long had been my loved retreat. I entered in the unlatched door, And stepped so softly o'er the floor I thought no ear could hear the tread-The tired tollers were in bed.

But hark! A swift, light step I hear, And mother's voice so soft and clear; Her arms about my neck she flung, Her only words, "my son, my son!" She knew my purpose was that day, As to the town I took my way To help to swell the list of those Who dared withstand the Nation's foes,

No more the marching to and fro, As off to bloody fields they go. to more is heard the fife and drum 'Mid cannon's roar and battle hum; No more the charge and victory won, The picket guard when day is done, No more the long lists read each day How Death had kept his dreadful sway.

No more Suspense and Dread keep guard O'er every soldier's home and ward, No more the little children say, As said they in that dreadful day, "Is my dear father with the slain, And will be never come again?"

But what we see is here and there An empty sleeve and silvered hair. A careworn face and crutches too, And sightless eyes age not a few; The sears and wounds they proudly bear These their badge of honor wear.

A GRACIOUS DONOR. Robbins Post and Corps and Gen. I. M. Kirby Camp, S. of V., Upper Sandusky, O., have closed another grand Campfire and Bazar, the taking features of which were the New England Kitchen, with its old time furnishings; John D. Cress's War Views; the gay Japanese Booth, presided over by Jennie H. Craemer; the French Cafe, and the Goddess Pavilion; all illuminated by patriotism and on tiptoe from the merry music of the Little Six Band. Here is a sample of the golden cheer extended by oyal Sanduskians to the unselfish workers of the UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Dec. 15, 1897. To Robbins Post, No. 91, and Robbins Woman's Relief Corps, No. 73, greeting; The Chief, in speaking of your Campfire and Bazar, says, in substance, that some one has said, 'Our poor are, and always have been, provided for." "This statement," the Chief says, "is false; that many are not provided for, and that it seems strange there is so much poverty in a town con-taining so much wealth, and that there are children who are kept from school for lack of clothing; children whose little feet are bare and exposed to the biting frost-little hands numb with cold; and worse still, little ones crying for breadt"

Now, such things ought not to be, and if all that are able to give would unite, how easily it could be remedied; and as I wish to give my mite, I hereby inclose an order which will help some; UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Dec., 15, 1887. Messrs, Kerr Bros., Millers, Upper Sandusky, O.: GENTLEMEN: Please let Robbins Post, No. 91, Grand Army of the Republic, and Robbins Woman's Relief Corps, No. 73, of our city, have 100 sacks, bags or barrels, or whatever amount they may want during the next year for the soldiers and their families, and the general poor of our County," of your best Roller-Mill flour, and send the bills to me, and oblige, yours, truly,

I would say to the Woman's Relief Corps, take any and all of the shoeless children who may come to your notice to any shoe store in town, and see them well provided for in that line, and send the bills to me. I would also add, see no little boy or Commander, J. W. Page; Executive Officer, D. | girl suffer for warm, comfortable clothing. Take them to any store, and see them provided for, and if you have no means, send the bills to me and I B. Hubbard; Paymaster, J. J. Sullivan; Sec., will pay them.

CHARLES BECK W.R.C.

The funeral services of Mrs. Kathrina L. Beedle, of Cambridge, Mass., were very impressive, conducted at Old Cambridge Baptist Church by Rev. Franklin Johnson, D. D., assisted by Rev. W. H. Marble, of the North Avenue M. E. Church. Fitting eulogies were pronounced, and there was excellent singing by a select quartet. There was a large attendance of personal friends, representa-tives of the Grand Army and officials of the Nalief Corps and of Charles Beck Corps, No. 2, of which she was a member. The burial service took place at Cambridge Cemetery, the Relief Corps having charge thereof, the ceremony of interment Order. Floral tributes of rare design and exquisite construction were contributed by the several organizations of which Mrs. Beedle was a warm supporter. At a regular meeting of Charles Beck PENNYSLVANIA. Corps, No. 2, a committee, consisting of Lizzie A. Prait, Clara J. Dickman, Capillia M. Ladd, H. Annie Allen and Leocordia P. Flowers, submitted the following resolutions, which were ordered puly-

Habed in THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE: Whereas death has laid its heavy hand upon us, V.-P's, George P. Mitchell and Thomas Kelley; and again are we reminded that man's days are like the flower which in the morning groweth up like the flower which in the morning groweth up william J. Uray; Financial Secy, Levi B. like the flower which in the morning groweth up and in the evening is cut down; in the loss of our sister, Kathrina L. Beedle, it is hard indeed to be reconciled, yet we know "He doeth all things well"; and be it we unite in an expression of love for the memory of one who has become so dear to us through her life of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty. Resolved, That while we mourn the loss of our nobly-gifted sister, we can but be thankful for the blessing of her able administration in the past, and the knowledge of her self-sacrificing devotion to Resolved, That our heartfelt sympathy be tendered the bereaved family, from whom has been taken the wife and mother, and may they turn to the kind Father of all for consolation, that Father whose love is as strong as His power, and who can do far better than we can ask or think.

REUNIONS. DELAWARE.

Alex. H. Mason, Wilmington: The survivors of the 2d Del. held their second annual Reunion in this city Dec. 13, the anniversary of the battle of Fredericksburg. Thirty-seven members were in attendance, and a very enjoyable time was spent. In the forenoon a parade was held, in which the "boys" carried their old blood-stained battleflags. An address of welcome was delivered by Mayor Rhoads. He was responded to on behalf of the veterans by Capt. William H. Helmbold. A permanent organization was perfected, and a neat badge adopted. It was decided to attend the Reunion of the Army of the Potomac at Gettysburg July 4. 1888, and a committee was appointed to make the necessary arrangements. An interesting 2, heartily indorsed and aided by the members of the necessary arrangements. An interesting Custer Post, No. 6. The venture was not only a and animated discussion ensued concerning the placing of the monument and markers to designate the positions held at different times by the 2d Del. during the battle of Gettysburg. It was finally agreed to move the large monument Custer Corps has unanimously re-elected Mrs. to the extreme advance, if not too expensive; $30 will be placed there. The following officers were then elected for the ensuing year: President, Charles Weiss, Philadelphia; V.-P., Joel Lacy, Wilmington; Sec., W. W. Hall, Philadelphia; Ass't Sec., Alexander Mason, Wilmington. In the evening the veterans, with the addition of Mayor Rhoads and Col. A. H. Grimshaw, of the 4th Del., as honored guests, assembled at J. T. Gardner's restaurant, and for several hours discussed the many good things provided for their enjoyment. After their appetites had been appeased, Capt. William H Helmbold, of Philadelphia, read a lengthy paper, minutely and accurately describing the regiment's participation in the battle of Fredericksburg. Col. A. H. Grimshaw also made an address. The next Reunion will be held at Wilmington Sept. 17, 1888.

Mrs. R. Humphey, telegraph opertor, Chicago, Ills., gives the following testimony: "I had a bad cough for nearly a year, and could get no relief. Had to leave my place in the office. I tried many remedies, even physicians' prescriptions, without any relief. One evening my husband brought home a bottle of Piso's Cure for Consumption, saying, 'this is the only medicine we have not already tried.' I had not slept anight for six weeks, and could not lie down. I took a dose of Piso's Cure that night before supper, and one at bedtime, laid down and went to sleep, never waking till morning. Have not lost a night's sleep since. This was three months ago, and now I have almost forgotten my cough."
